THIS Day His Majesty and the Royal Family came from Kensington to reside here during the Winter.

Naples, Oct. 8. We have Advice from Palermo, that Commodore Martinez, being on a Cruize with two Men of War and four Chebecks in the Sicilian Seas, fell in with five Algerine Corsairs, one of which he sunk, and obliged the others to sheer off, after an obstinate Engagement. They continue to raise Men with great Success for compleating the Regiments with which the King has thought proper to augment his Troops.

Genoa, Oct. 14. On Sunday last the Gallies that carried a considerable Reinforcement of Troops to Corsica, returned into this Port; the Commander whereof brought the Government some Dispatches from the Marquess Doria, by which we learn, that Things continue at present pretty quiet in that Island.

Parma, Oct. 16. The Duke de Penthievre, High Admiral of France, who landed at Genoa last Sunday from Antibes, is expected here on Friday next: He proposes to reside for about a Fortnight in the Abby of St. John, which is getting ready for his Reception; after which he will continue his Tour to most of the principal Courts of Italy.

Vienna, Oct. 19. The Archdukes and Archdutchesses removed last Wednesday from Schonbrun to their Apartments in the Castle in this City. Frankfort, Oct. 24. On Monday last the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, and the Landgrave of Hesse Darmstadt, had an Interview in the Gardens of Counsellor Schmids at Oberrod. These two Princes received each other with great Marks of Esteem, and after spending some Hours together in the greatest Friendship, the first set out on his Return to Philipsruhe, and the other to Darmstadt.

Cologn, Oct. 28. They write from Liege, that they are busy in drawing all the Iron Artillery out of the Cittadel, and replacing them with others of Brass, pursuant to a Resolution of the States of that Principality.

Hambourg, Oct. 29. The Vacancy in this Magistracy, occasioned by the Death of Burghermaster Widow, who is much regretted, was filled up this Morning by the Choice of the Senator Schuback, whose known Capacity in the Law meets with a general Applause from the Inhabitants of this City.

Hague, Oct. 31. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland being to assemble on Wednesday the 6th of next Month, the Points upon which they are to deliberate are already sent away to the respective Cities and Towns in those Provinces.
